KAUKEAULI THE GOOD.

Monday last was, by the will of the Legislature, celebrated as a National holiday because it is the birthday of King Kamehameha III. The Legislature of 1882 instituted this holiday by a formal resolution to the effect that as Kamehameha III. was greatly beloved by his people and had granted to them the freehold of their lands, his birthday should be thus observed.

The reign of this King has been rightly named the "transition period" of Hawaiian history. It commenced with something like a coup d'etat on the part of the chiefs, who, taking advantage of the youth of the King, re-established the old tenure of their lands which Kamehameha the Great had virtually abolished. The early years of the reign under this Regency of Kaahumanu, was marked by a violent struggle against the licentiousness which was, and is, the greatest curse of the Hawaiian people. Then came the equally resolute and equally ineffectual struggle to exclude from the Kingdom all forms of Christianity but that which the first missionaries had brought with them. This ended by embroiling the nation with France.

Soon after came the troubles with Great Britain which, though distinct in themselves may be traced the enmities engendered by the great struggles which had preceded them. The first half of Kaukeauli's long reign was thus an ever changing panorama of trouble. But brighter days followed. The enlightened statesmen who then ruled in England and France joined hands to acknowledge and virtually guarantee the independence of the Kingdom. Listening to the advice of sage counsellors Kamehameha III. established a regular form of Government and promulgated a code of laws modelled on those of civilized nations. He gave his people a constitution, and then he gave them their lands. Later on, it is true, he would have given away their independence and his crown, but happily for his reputation and for his country he hesitated long enough about this to die in time and leave it undone. That he was a king beloved by his people is the universal testimony of those who are able to bear witness. That his memory is loved and revered is made evident by the resolution which makes his birthday a national holiday. The great work of making a nation out of a group of tribes which Kamehameha I. began was completed by him. To his successors a new task was remitted which each has endeavored to cope with according to his lights—that of accepting and harmonizing with the native race and immigrant host of many nationalities. But this task would never have fallen to the lot of Hawaiian kings, but for the sterling qualities and prudent conduct of KAUIKEAULI THE GOOD.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Hon. S. K. Kaai died quite suddenly about 4 o'clock this morning. The deceased has been in weak health for some time past, but no suspicion of immediate danger appears to have been entertained by his friends.

The Hawaiian Hotel has once more changed hands. The former lessee, Dr. J. S. McGrew, has disposed of his interest to Messrs. G. W. Macfarlane & Co. The negotiations that have been going on for the past six months closed on Tuesday last. The purchasers agree to take over the whole of the Hotel leasehold property, in addition to the rights acquired by Dr. McGrew during his tenancy. Mr. George Fassett will remain as manager, and under his special superintendence everything will be done to increase the popularity of this first-class hotel. All the resources at the command of the influential firm of Messrs. G. W. Macfarlane & Co. will be utilized in catering for the intelligent public. In order to mitigate the difficulties that besiege the culinary department in this city, large refrigerators will be erected, in order that the products of the San Francisco markets can be successfully availed of to the fullest extent. In such hands and under such management the Hawaiian Hotel must of necessity prove a success.

A number of gentlemen met yesterday noon at the rooms of the Planters' Labor and Supply Company, and organized themselves into a club to be styled the "Married Men's Base-ball Club." The gentlemen present were Bruce Cartwright, G. W. Ashley, J. G. Spencer, T. C. Porter, F. W. Macfarlane, A. J. Cartwright Jr., E. R. Hendry, W. A. Holmes, H. F. Holbron, S. F. Graham, S. J. Levey, R. S. Smith, W. O. Atwater, Geo. Howe, F. S. Darling, C. H. Eldridge and J. M. Oat Jr. After regularly organizing and adopting constitution and by-laws, they elected the following officers: President, Bruce Cartwright; Secretary and Treasurer, J. M. Oat, Jr.; and Directors: Messrs. E. R. Hendry, F. W. Macfarlane and T. C. Porter. This club is limited to fifty members, and has already on its roll, in addition to the above named: C. R. Bishop, A. J. Cartwright Sr., W. F. Allen, John H. Paty, S. M. Damon, S. B. Dole, J. E. Brown, A. G. Ellis, G. D. Freeth, D. McCartney, W. M. Giffard, W. L. Luce, R. Catten, C. B. Wilson, John M. Oat, Jr., M. D. Mousarrat, H. F. Lewis, Clarence Macfarlane and E. P. Adams. It is expected that the complement will shortly be made up. Wednesday will be the first practice day, and at 4 p. m. the members will assemble at the Makiki reserve for that purpose.

From the bktns Discovery there were landed yesterday morning 24 horses, 35 miles, 3 bulls and 1 cow. Amongst the horses there is nothing of a very high class standard, but they are all good working animals and mostly young. It is a lot from which our express and draymen can pick out something useful and suitable for their requirements. The mules are a very superior lot and will no doubt be eagerly sought for by those requiring such animals. The bulls are of the Durham breed, and are a valuable addition to the breeding stock of this country. All these animals were landed in excellent condition and add another laurel to the many already gained by the Discovery as a favorite vessel with importers of stock. This vessel has spacious deck room, and her general steadiness at sea has established her reputation as a suitable vessel by which to import animals of all kinds.

The band will play the following programme this afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock, at the German Club grounds:

- PART I.
- 1 March "Emperor William," Berger
 - 2 Overture, "Festival," Bach
 - 3 Selection, "Stradella," Flotow
 - 4 Polka, "First Kiss," Newman
 - 5 Quadrille, "Beggars Student," Minoccker
 - 6 Medley, "German Melodies," Kuhne
- PART II.
- 7 Selection, "Martha," Flotow
 - 8 Quartet "Huntsman's Farewell," Mendelssohn
 - 9 Waltz, "Laura," Minoccker
 - 10 March, "Tannhauser," Wagner
 - 11 Quadrille, "German Songs," Welcker
 - 12 Quickstep, a, "Fearless and True," Unrath
 - 12 Quickstep, b, "Emperor's Review," Glarman

"THE WATCH ON THE RHINE!"
"Hawaii Poni!"

The band will not play on Monday evening, but will on Tuesday evening, at Emma Square.

Whilst in Robson's tailor shop, on Fort street, yesterday, Mr. Robson exhibited a military coat he had just completed for an officer of a local company. The trimmings are highly artistic and reflect credit on the tailor. It is in fact equal to anything of the kind that is manufactured in Poole's or Silver's, the celebrated army and navy tailors. Mr. Robson acquired this special branch of his business in a London house, and his hand has not forgotten any of its cunning since leaving the metropolis of England.

An attempt was made yesterday morning, between 2 and 3 o'clock, to burglarize a Chinaman's store at the head of Emma street. The inmates were aroused, and three men were seen to be running away, but it was impossible to distinguish whether they were foreigners, Chinese or natives. A Chinese laundry on King street was also entered about the same time, and a quantity of clothing taken. No arrests made as yet.

We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of several illuminated cards, setting forth in detail the movements of the S. S. Mariposa and S. S. Alameda, rates of passage, etc. On the reverse side is a well drawn picture of the sister ships steaming end on with a fair wind. Enclosed with all is a neatly executed card of the Honolulu agents, Messrs. Wm. G. Irwin & Co.

To-day Messrs. Lyons & Levey hold their regular cash sale. In addition to their usual line of dry goods and groceries, they will sell Manila cigars, a lot of law books, and a grey saddle mare that is sound and kind, and can be ridden by a lady.

"The Invisible Food" will be Mr. Cruzan's theme Sunday morning, and "What First?" in the evening.

The partnership heretofore existing between Messrs. Reiley & Simpson is dissolved.

The bone of contention between Messrs. Crowley and Squires has been settled out of Court. Mr. Crowley denied publicly that he was indebted to Mr. Squires, in the sum of $8, but as treasurer of the Workingmen's Union he admitted having received that amount from Mr. S. to be used by the Society for a special purpose. Mr. C., as well as other officers and members of the Union, being under the impression that it was a donation on the part of Mr. S., and not a loan. The money paid into Court, to avoid litigation, is part of the funds of the Union, and not from the private purse of Mr. Crowley. The legal adviser of the Union suggested that this step be taken in preference to a lot of unnecessary wrangling in the Police Court.

The Sydney press is of opinion that if Australia is to hold the high place in the world which it is evident Nature intended she should do, it highly becomes Australia's voters that they should not only possess but use their franchise in such a way as to insure the election of the most capable and most honorable men to take part in the deliberations, and to conduct the business of the country. When this is done, federation will not be a dim idea, but a pregnant fact, and Australia will, outside all extraneous influences, be able to take her position, and hold it safely and honorably, among the nations of the world.

Some time during Thursday night the store known as the Louvre de Brussels was broken into. The entrance was effected by one of the windows in the rear of the store. A pane of glass was cut out and the window raised. A quantity of jewelry, comprising rings, bracelets, necklaces, watches, etc., was taken; also a considerable quantity of clothing, silk handkerchiefs, etc. On the premises was found a dagger, with a white handle, in a leather case. The policeman who was, or ought to have been, on duty in the immediate neighborhood of the burglary, has been discharged.

On Monday next Messrs. Lyons & Levey will offer for public competition seven head of the finest horses ever imported to this Kingdom. They comprise a chestnut colt, a chestnut filly, three bay fillies and two bay colts, the pedigree of each being fully given in the advertisement. These animals were bred by Governor Stanford at Palo Alto, Santa Clara county, California, and selected by Mr. H. J. Agnew of this city.

The great attraction of this day will be the Garden party to be held at the German Club, in commemoration of the 87th anniversary of the birthday of the Emperor William. The band will be in attendance during the afternoon, and judging from the general nature of the invitations, there is every reason to anticipate that it will be numerous and fashionably patronized, and that there will be a brilliant social reunion. In the evening there will be a grand ball.

Wednesday morning, on the arrival of the brig Wm. G. Irwin, a large crowd gathered at the O. S. S. wharf to witness the landing of the horses and ponies belonging to Sherman's circus. The ponies were a great attraction to the natives, and called forth many amusing remarks. All of the animals were landed in excellent condition after their protracted voyage. At the performance this evening an entire new programme will be given in which the above horses and ponies will take a prominent part.

Messrs. George Pracht and G. W. C. Jones have formed a copartnership for the purpose of carrying on a stock-raising business in the Kau and Puna districts, Hawaii.

A matinee at the circus this afternoon, and a performance in the evening, as usual. The attractions are unusually great.

This (Saturday) afternoon the German residents will be glad to meet their friends at the German Club, the occasion being the 87th anniversary of Emperor William's birthday. The gentlemen who comprise the committee of the proposed celebration are Messrs. H. A. Widemann, H. F. Glade, H. W. Schmidt and F. A. Schaefer.

Mrs. Hampson, the Evangelist, will leave by the steamer either to-day or to-morrow for Australia. The announcement made by a contemporary that this lady would deliver an address in the Bethel Church to-morrow morning is incorrect.

Ladies and children are especially invited to the garden party to be held on the premises of the German Club this afternoon, in honor of the German Emperor's birthday.

Going to the band being engaged at the German Club to-morrow afternoon there will be no concert in Emma Square.

The evidence of Mr. J. N. Wright in the case of Wm. Brown vs. the Koloa Sugar Company was taken on Thursday in the Supreme Court by the Chief Clerk.

The extension of the shed at the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co's wharf was commenced on Wednesday and will be completed to-day.

The sale of deck house, whale boat, etc., lately used by the cable sounding party brought $226 50.

His Excellency the Governor is convalescing, and will probably be able to be about town to-day.

The printing of the Chief Justice's report has been awarded to Thos. G. Thrum.

The monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held Thursday evening, Hon. A. F. Judd, President, in the chair. The attendance was better than last month, but still small considering the number of members the Association has on its books. The question of a general secretary again came up. It is expected that a Mr. Ricker of Boston will accept the post if the association can afford to pay the passages of himself and Mrs. Ricker from Boston. It was announced that the committees of the Bethel and Fort St. Churches had arranged to invite Mrs. Hampson to stay a month here on her return from the Colonies in the fall.

At the Supreme Court Thursday morning, before Mr. Justice Austin, judgment was rendered in favor of Mr. F. A. Schaefer, executor of the M. J. Rose estate in the case of Schaefer vs. Brown. This case was repeatedly called at the Police Court but was finally certified up to a Justice of the Court. As to the future action in the case, a citation may issue as Brown is a legatee under the will of the deceased, M. J. Rose.

During the month of February the Montague-Turner Company did excellent business at the Gaiety Theatre, Sydney, and each successive work produced by them met with the warmest approval. The Graphic says: "It is a pity that both Mr. and Mrs. Turner did not limit the number of their appearances, as their voices are showing signs of wear, and too much exertion must tell on them."

There was another grand performance at Sherman's circus on Thursday night. The Shetland ponies under the direction of young Morocco were perfect wonders, and the other novelties introduced proved equally attractive. This evening there will be presented the greatest bill of the season. It is well to know that seats can be secured in advance by application to Mr. J. E. Wiseman.

The crossing of the tramway on King street is still in as bad order as ever. Such matters as these are of such vital importance to the public safety that there should be no delay about remedying the evil. So far there has been no serious accidents in that particular spot, but in order to avoid anything of the kind, carriages that pass that way daily are compelled to cross the track at a walk.

A very interesting case affecting the fishing rights of the late Ruth Keelikolani will be tried in the Police Court on the 27th instant. Mr. Russell will appear for the plaintiff, Atong, and His Ex. P. Neumann, Attorney-General and Mr. A. Rosa for the defendants.

A new steamer, the City of Para, a sister ship to the City of Rio de Janeiro will shortly be added to the Pacific Mail and Occidental and Oriental Companies to run between Japan and California, leaving Hongkong and San Francisco on the 1st and 15th of each month.

In view of the rivalry between the two mail boats, the Alameda and the Australia, there will no doubt be better time made than usual on the present downward trip. We shall look for the Alameda first, with her accustomed regularity.

Mr. A. H. Raseman having purchased the entire bookbinding stock formerly belonging to Messrs. J. W. Robertson & Co., he has established himself in that special line of business on the Gazette Block, in the rooms formerly occupied by Mr. Wiseman.

Tenders for the building of a Police Court and Station House on Merchant street will be received at the office of the Minister of the Interior until noon on Saturday the 29th instant. Plans and specifications are now open for inspection.

The Merchant of the 29th ult. states that Hawaiian rice is weak, owing to large arrivals. It notes a sale of 200 bags at 4¢, 60 days, but rumor says there has been a sale at 4¢ cash.

The Minister of the Interior is erecting a large and commodious dwelling-house on the site where his former residence stood, on King street, which was destroyed by fire in June, 1883.

The jewelry store formerly kept by Mr. Du Commun on King street is closed, and the late proprietor is not seen about town. It is rumored that he left for the Coast by the steamship Zealandia.

Charlie, the conductor of the train at Wailuku that met with a fatal accident last month, has been discharged, but Engineer Parker is still retained in the Company's service.

The steamer Austral, which capsized and sank in Sydney harbor, a little over a year ago, is to run across the Atlantic, in the Anchor Line with her sister ship, the City of Rome.

Mr. Levey, with his wonderful hammer, will knock down a deck house, a whale boat, and a flat-bottomed center-board boat, at noon this day on Brewer's wharf.

The two Shetland ponies that were landed on Wednesday from the W. G. Irwin are perfect specimens of symmetry. They can be seen to advantage in the arena this evening.

Saloon berths per steamship Alameda are being rapidly taken up by intending visitors to the Coast.

The O. S. S. Alameda with dates to the 15th instant is due on Saturday next at noon.
